Nortek Security & Control Comes to Agreement with Chamberlain on IP Dispute Related to Company's Garage Door Controller Product

Agreement provides Nortek Security & Control and its affiliates with license for current and future products.

Carlsbad, CA – November 24, 2015 – 1:05 PM ET -- Nortek Security & Control LLC (NSC), a Nortek, Inc. company (NASDAQ: NTK) and a leader in the residential and commercial security and control markets, announces today that it has resolved an intellectual property lawsuit filed by The Chamberlain Group, Inc. (CGI) last year related to certain NSC garage door controller products (GDCs). The settlement and license agreement entered into by NSC and CGI provides NSC and its affiliates, including sister company GTO, with a license to the CGI patents in suit for current and future products. “We are pleased to come to an agreement with CGI on this issue and to put the dispute behind us” said Mike O’Neal, president Nortek Security & Control.

NSC’s GoControl® GarageDoor Controller is sold to security channel dealers and distributors throughout North America. It can also be found at retail outlets like Amazon.com under the GoControl brand, other retailers and security service providers under their own brands.
